

Small Groups Online & Face to Face Thriving for the Long Haul

The need for connection and small groups has never been more essential. It's no small challenge to get groups to meet, but an even bigger challenge to keep them going! For 35 years North Coast Church has been able to keep 80% of their weekend attendance in groups as they've grown to now seven campuses! Here's five strategies they work hard at keeping alive so their groups and people's connection can thrive over the long haul!
